Henry James

The British Tradition of High Tea began in the mid 1700’s and by the 1800’s, was recognized as an important event on the social calendars of Ladies and Gentlemen, often before attending the theatre.

The Friends of State Opera invite you to a High Tea of freshly baked sweet and savoury scones, exquisite pastries, finger sandwiches and delicious cups of tea as together we share an agreeable hour or two of laughter, conversation and a ‘taste’ of theatre from State Opera Artists.
